Transitioning into adulthood is difficult, even more so for those who have been trying to make it on their own since adolescence.

Some of our sponsored youths have incarcerated and/or drug addicted parents.

All are living in poverty doing their best to navigate life.

BB4Kids provides funding for:

transit passes

school laptops

college books

graduation cap and gown expenses first and last month's rent rent deposits

basic household and dormitory needs interview, work and school clothing
